Volume 1 / Issue 1

Entering Into Q4 of 2020

As the colors change, the weather changes, each of us have to adjust to these changes. Changes can be uncomfortable. We've all endured many changes over the first 3 quarters of the year. Our children have transitioned to educating at home, parents have switched to working at home and juggling both the family and career, plus dealing with the after effects of the COVID Pandemic! Please pat yourselves on the back and continue to be passionate for others around you who have either survived themselves or lost loved ones. Next phase, we're all preparing for elections. Please use your voting rights to ensure we get folks in place who can help drive change for the better. Be sure to subscribe to & hit the notify bell for The #SCBBLSHOW Channel at bit.ly/scbblyt to take advantage of the news we're bringing to help keep you informed in all areas of life that matters. Help drive our channel views & interactions up. Check out what we've been up to lately!

"There is nothing so stable as change."
